

Announcement

ECU Arbiters' Council during the Women European Individual Championship 2017 in Riga/Latvia is planning to hold ECU Arbiters' 2nd Refreshing Course (in English or/and Russian language), from 14–16 April, at 10:00–13:00.

The agenda of the Refreshment Course is as follows:

1. FIDE Laws of Chess 2017
2. ECU Tournament Rules 2016
3. Anti-cheating Guidelines
4. Case studies from chess tournaments

Lecturer of the course will be IA Ashot Vardapetyan (Armenia), Chairman of ECU Arbiters' Council and Chairman of FIDE Rules Commission.

The ECU Refreshing Courses is an advance course, for titled arbiters. Participation is free of charge. For visa and accommodation purposes the visiting arbiters must contact ECU General Secretary and/or Women European Individual Championship–2017 organizers.

Contact Information:

For visa and accommodation – Egons.Lavendelis@rtu.lv

For Courses: – ia\_varzapetyan@yahoo.com