The Competitions will be held in Sochi (Krasnodar Krai) in the village of Dagomys at the federal state autonomous institution Dagomys Health Complex of the Administrative Department of the President of the Russian Federation.

III. ORGANIZERS

The Ministry of Sport of the Russian Federation (hereinafter the Russian Ministry of Sport) and the all-Russian non-governmental organization Russian Chess Federation (hereinafter the RCF) provide general management of the Competitions with the support of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation (hereinafter the Russian Ministry of Science and Education).

Federal state autonomous institution Sporting Events Organizing and Hosting Office exercise the powers of the Russian Ministry of Sport as the organizer of the Competitions.

The federal executive authorities of the constituent entities of the Russian Federation for physical culture, sport and educational management along with regional chess federations shall be directly in charge of conducting Stages I-III of the Competitions.

In order to conduct the school-level, municipal and regional stages of the Competitions:

- school-level, municipal and regional organizing committees whose members are approved by the stage organizers shall be established;
- regulations shall be drafted on the corresponding stages of the Competitions that indicate: the system for holding the Competitions, time control, the criteria for determining winners and medallists, and the appeals procedure;
- panels of arbiters who are directly in charge of holding the corresponding stages of the Competitions shall be approved.

The Krasnodar Regional Chess Federation and a main panel of arbiters approved by the RCF shall be directly in charge of holding Stage IV of the Competitions.

IV. REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPANTS AND QUALIFICATION CONDITIONS

Teams formed from students aged 14 and younger (born in 2005 or later) who study in the same general educational institution are allowed to take part in all stages of the Competition. The date of the enrolment to the general educational institution shall not be later than 01.09.2018.

Each team consists of 5 participants, including 4 players (at least one of them must be a girl) and 1 coach. One of the players is a captain. Foreign teams participate in the Stages I-III in accordance with the qualification terms set by their national chess federations. Russian teams participate in the Stages I-III of the Competitions in the following manner. Students of one general educational organization take part in the stage I of the Competitions. It is allowed to hold an individual and team championship.

Teams composed of students, who had the best results in stages I and II, take part in stages II and III.

One winning team from Stage III from each constituent entities of the Russian Federation as well as the winning teams of national competitions among children's amateur teams of foreign nations qualify for the final.

The teams of chess departments of junior physical training clubs, specialized sports schools, Olympic reserve schools, Culture Palaces, etc., or those that combine players from more than one school are not allowed to participate in the final.

In case of the violation of the above-mentioned requirements, a team is eliminated from the Competition and is excluded from the final standings.

VI. RULES FOR CONDUCTION FINAL COMPETITIONS

The Competitions are held according to the rules for the sport of Chess approved by the Order № 654 of the Russian Ministry of Sport as of July 17, 2017, in the redaction of the Order № 1087 of the Russian Ministry of Sport as of December 19, 2017, and not contradicting the FIDE Laws of Chess.

The tournament is played according to the Swiss system with 9 rounds. The Swiss-Manager computer program is used for drawing of lots.

Starting numbers are assigned to the teams based on their average Elo rating. If a participant does not have an Elo rating:

- the Russian rating is conditionally used for the Russian teams;
- for foreign teams, the starting Elo rating of 1000 is conditionally used.

If there are an odd number of teams, the team that is “free” in the next round receives 50% of points, while every team player gets 0 points.

Time control: 90 minutes for the whole game to each player plus 30 seconds increment for each move, starting from move one.

Default time for each round is 10 minutes.

After the end of the match, the team captains have to sign a protocol with the match result. The protocol may be signed by the team player who was last to end the game instead of the captain.

The Appeals Committee (AC), which is elected at the Representatives Meeting and consists of 3 regular and 2 reserve members, works at the competition.

A player may appeal any arbiter’s decision provided that the team’s coach files an application in writing to the AC no later than 30 minutes after the end of the round with a deposit of 3,000 (three thousand) roubles. The deposit shall be returned if the application is granted, otherwise the money received goes to the RCF to cover the competition holding expenses.

The decision of the AC is final. No protests regarding the drawing of lots by the computer are accepted.

The conduct of the Competition's participants is governed by the Regulation on Sports Penalties in the sport of Chess.

Cheating control, carrying out in accordance with the FIDE Anti-Cheating Guidelines, is used at the Competition with a standard security level.

It is prohibited to exert unlawful influence on the Competition results.

It is prohibited to participate in gambling at bookmaker's shops and totalizators by betting at competitions in accordance with the Requirements established by Paragraph 3, Part 4, Article 26.2 of Federal Law No. 329-FZ as of December 4, 2007 "On Physical Culture and Sports in the Russian Federation".

VII. RESULTS AND TIE-BREAK CRITERIA AT FINAL COMPETITIONS

The event is both individual and team.

The winning team and medallists of the Competition are determined by the total number of points scored by all team players in all matches. If points are equal, places shall be determined according to the following tie-break criteria in the order of importance mentioned below:

- Greater number of team points (win in a match gives 2 points, a draw in a match – 1 point);
- If team points are equal – according to the match result between each other;
- Team Buchholz.

If all the above-mentioned criteria are still equal, the advantage shall be given to the team whose player on board 1 scored more points. If the players scored an equal number of points, the results shall be compared on the second board, then on the third and then on the fourth.

The winners in individual competitions on the boards are determined according to the number of points scored. If points are equal, places shall be determined according to the following descending order of importance:

- Buchholz,
- Number of wins;
- Direct encounter;
- Buchholz Cut (1, 2).

VIII. AWARDS

Winners and prize-winners in individual competitions on the boards are rewarded medals and the RCF diplomas.

The teams that take the top three places in the final stage of the Competitions are rewarded cups, certificates and special prizes by the RCF. Team players are granted with medals and certificates from the Russian Ministry of Sport.

All teams taking part in the final Competitions are given certificates from the Russian Ministry of Education and Science.
