

Rapid chess tournament in memory of Priit Leito

Tallinn, 04.02.2023

Regulation

I Purpose

To commemorate Priit Leito, a former member of the Estonian national chess team and a long-time member of the SK Reval-Sport chess club.

II Time and place

The rapid tournament will take place on February 4, 2023, starting at 10:15 a.m. in Tallinn, in the Paul Keres chess house, at Vene street 29.

III Participants

All chess players and chess enthusiasts who have received permission from the organizing committee and have paid the entry fee are allowed to participate in the competition. The organizers reserve the right to limit the number of participants in accordance with the restrictions in force in Estonia due to the fight against COVID-19.

All registered players must be ready for doping control. Refusal of doping control or evasion of doping control is considered a doping rule violation. The athlete is obliged to follow the rules of fair play, anti-manipulation of sports competitions and sports safety.

IV Competition organization and competition conditions

- The competition is organized and conducted by SK Reval-Sport together with the Estonian Chess Federation.
- The tournament will be played according to FIDE Laws of Chess in the Swiss system for 9 rounds in a single group. The time control is 15 minutes + 3 extra seconds for each move starting from move one.
- Without the permission of the arbiter a player is forbidden to bring an electronic devices (e.g. switched on mobile phone) into the playing area unless they are completely switched off. If any such device produces a sound, the player shall lose the game (the opponent wins; however, if the opponent cannot win the game with any series of legal moves, it results in a draw). If a player disturbs other players, the referee decides to remove the disturbing player from the tournament.
- Any player who appears at the chessboard 7 minutes after the start of the game time loses the game.
- In case of equal points between two or more chess players, the tie-break will be as follows:
 - Buchholz;
 - Buchholz with the lowest scoring opponent's score discarded;
 - Buchholz with the 2 lowest scoring opponents' scores discarded; etc.

- Handshakes before the game (after the game) are not mandatory. Basic rules of courtesy are enough.

VII Management

- The expenses related to the running of the quick tournament are covered by the organizers, from grants, sponsorships and participation fees.

- The entry fee is 15 EUR per adults and 10 EUR per youth (born in 2005 and younger) or seniors (born in 1973 and older) and is paid to the organizer at the competition venue.
- International Grand Masters (GM/WGM), International Masters (IM/WIM), members of SK Reval-Sport and TV3 chess players are exempt from the participation fee.
- As a reminder, we also ask all chess players who are exempt from the participation fee to pre-register in time, i.e. by February 2, 2023 at the latest.
- The dispatching costs of the participants are borne by the sending organization or player.
- If the person who wants to participate has not registered by the deadline, but shows up to compete, then the person who comes to the competition venue needs to get the organizer's consent on the spot and pay the participation fee, which is twice the amount mentioned above (30 EUR and 20 EUR, respectively) .
- The organizer has the right to limit the number of participants to 120 players, giving an advantage to those who register first.

VIII Pre-registration

Pre-registration must be done no later than the late evening of February 2, 2023 in the calendar plan of the Estonian Chess Federation (<http://www.maleliit.ee/kalender/>) or to the e-mail address kaarelnestor@hotmail.com, stating the participant's first and last name and year of birth.

IX General
